Applicant)

1) This 29 year old applicant is a 2002 graduate of California State University, Northridge, in Northridge, California. The applicant first filed his physical therapist application on or about October 18, 2002 in the State of California.

2) In October 2002, the applicant submitted an application for physical therapist licensure to the Physical Therapy Board of California. Question # 18 of the application asks: "Have you ever been convicted of, or pled nolo contendere to any offense in any state in the United States or a foreign country?" The applicant failed to disclose criminal history and signed his application on October 18, 2002, certifying under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information contained in the application were true and correct.

3) On October 22, 2002, the California Department of Justice (DOJ) submitted to the board the results of the applicant's fingerprint card. The DOJ reported that on February 10, 1996, the applicant was arrested in California and charged with Assault on Person. On January 23, 2003, applicant reported a second arrest, on January 17, 1997, for DUI. On or about April 5, 1996 his plea of nolo contendere to the first offense of Disorderly Conduct: Under INFL Drug, was sentenced to 12 months probation, five days in jail or fine, a fine of $100 which were paid in full and Community Service was completed, proof of completion filed June 6, 1996. On or about February 18, 1997 applicant was convicted of DUI. Applicant was placed on summary three (3) year probation under following conditions: pay a fine of $1334, which was paid in full, enroll and participate in and successfully complete a three month licensed first offender alcohol and other drug education and counseling program, successfully completed. By responding "No" to question # 18 of the application and failing to disclose this conviction, the applicant knowingly made a false statement of fact required to be revealed in the application.

JURISDICTION

4) Section 480 (a) of the Business and Professions Code states that a board may deny a license regulated by this code on the grounds that the applicant has one of the following:

(1) Been convicted of a crime...; (2) Done any act involving dishonesty, fraud or deceit with the intent to substantially benefit himself or another, or substantially injure another; or (3) Done any act which if done by a licensee of the business or profession in question, would be grounds for suspension or revocation of license... Section 480 (c) of the Business and Professions Code provides that the board may deny a license...on the ground that the applicant knowingly made a false statement of fact required to be revealed in the application for such license. The above findings support a conclusion that grounds for denial exist pursuant to Sections 480 (a)(1)(2) and (3) and 480(c).

5) Section 583 of the Business and Professions Code states that no person shall in any document or writing required of an applicant for examination, license, certificate, or registration under this division, the Osteopathic Initiative Act, or the Chiropractic Initiative Act, willfully make a false statement in a material regard.

6) Section 2660.2 of the Business and Professions Code, the Board may refuse a license to any applicant guilty of unprofessional conduct; or as an alternative, in its sole discretion, issue a probationary license to any applicant for a license who is guilty of unprofessional conduct but has met all the requirements for licensure.

7) Pursuant to Section 480 of the Business and Professions Code, there is cause for denial of a license applicant Rodolfo S. Medina.

8) Pursuant to Section 2660.2 of the Business and Professions Code, there is cause to refuse a license to applicant Rodolfo S. Medina. Under the circumstances of this matter, however, a probationary license may be issued consistent with the public interest to applicant Rodolfo S. Medina on appropriate terms and conditions of probation.
